

Central State Community Services

Recipient Rights Test

First Name *

Last Name *

Today's Date *

Worksite Location *

1. What is the expectation of Central State regarding the treatment of individuals served by the agency? *

- Employees should ignore their rights
- Employees should prioritize their own rights over those of the individuals served
- Employees should respect their rights and refrain from practices that are abusive and/or neglectful

2. Who assumes an individual's rights and responsibilities in the absence of the individual? *

- The government
- The individual's guardian, next of kin, or sponsoring agency
- The individual's neighbor

3. Who is responsible for ensuring that individuals understand their rights? *

- The Home Supervisor
- The IT department
- The HR team

4. What is the stance of CSCS on the living environment and services provided to individuals? *

- Individuals must live in highly restrictive environments
- Individuals have no say in their living environment
- Individuals have the right to live in the least restrictive environment possible

5. How should personal property be handled within our organization? *

- It should be encouraged unless restricted by law or the Person-Centered Plan
- It should be left unattended
- It should be disposed of immediately upon arrival

6. What is Central State's policy regarding confidentiality? *

- Confidentiality is not a concern
- Confidentiality is only important for certain staff members
- Each individual has the right to confidentiality

7. When can limitations be placed on an individual's freedom of movement? *

- Whenever staff deem it necessary
- Only to prevent substantial property damage
- Only when necessary to provide services or prevent harm

8. What are the reporting requirements for suspected abuse or neglect? *

- Make oral reports to the appropriate authorities immediately
- Report it to the media
- Ignore it

9. What constitutes Abuse Class I according to the provided material? *

- Kind acts by an employee
- Non-accidental acts by an employee causing or contributing to death or serious physical harm
- Ignoring individuals

10. What is CSCS's stance on individuals' right to participate in religious practices? *

- Individuals have the right to participate in religious worship or abstain from such practices
- Individuals' religious practices are decided by the staff
- Individuals are supposed to attend the staff's place of worship

Message

Submit