Thankfulness

Volume 1, Issue 1

November 2022

Broad stripes and bright stars.... gave proof....

that our flag was still there.

Veteran

I was a proud veteran
That served my country well
To those that would listen
I had many stories to tell.

We fought for America's freedom
In far away places on foreign land.
Wherever the battle for democracy raged,
America's finest made a stand.

We fought for your future
And the right to remain free.
For we saw what freedom meant
To those not blessed with Liberty.

For you and yours
We would gladly have given our life.
We faced the fears and perils of battle
We braved endless turmoil and strife.

Please remember us veterans
And the sacrifices we made for you.
Please share the blessings of freedom,
Proudly wave the red, white and blue.

Broad stripes and bright stars gave proof that our flag was still there.

Gratefulness of freedom

Loss and joy.

We don't truly understand deep joy without pain or loss.

Millions of men and woman have willingly fought for some of the freedoms we may take for granted.

The freedom to sleep in a warm bed at night without the fear of having our door busted in.

The right to worship as we choose. The right to bear arms. Freedom of education.

Freedom to have as many children as we want. Freedom of choice in everything we do daily.

We are blessed with an abundance of food and material comforts in The United States of America.

November 23rd is National "What do you love about America day."

I encourage us to take a moment to give and speak thanks to all who have selflessly laid their life on the line for you and I and think about what we love about the land we live in.

"Acknowledging the good that you already have in your life is the foundation for all abundance."

~ Eckhart Tolle

Thankfulness on Thanksgiving

May we value the freedom of celebrating our families with heat and an abundance of food and traditions.

May we hold our family and friends a bit tighter this season and be grateful that we can spend time in their presence.

May we laugh and enjoy everyone and let them know how much they mean to us.

Wishing you all a blessed and safe holiday. We are thankful for each and every one of you.

If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here. You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.
